THE SANCTIONS AT GENEVA

Various Views
Expressed

NATIONS UNPREPARED FOR WAR

London, July 2.

The delegates of Irish Free State and New Zealand took part in this afternoon's discussion on sanctions at the meeting of the League Assembly at Geneva. The debate will be resumed to-morrow.

Mr. de Valera urged that the great powers should meet now in a peace conference to prevent war rather than to wait for a conference which would have to be held after Europe had once more been drenched in blood.

Sir James Parr, New Zealand, favoured maintenance of sanctions but would acquiesce if the majority of the League members favoured suspension. Referring to the League reform he advocated that all nations of the world should be invited to the September meeting of the Assembly.

Other speakers this afternoon included Senor Rivas Viena, Chile, who supported Argentina's initiative in non-recognition of the Italian conquest and added that unless confidence in the efficacy of the League were restored Chile might reconsider her continued membership.

K. G. Westman, Sweden, said that the sanction front was already broken, but nothing could reverse the Assembly's verdict that Italy was the aggressor. He deplored the fact that the League was not universal. Baron Edgü, Austria, referring to the Italian memorandum presented to the League at the opening of the Assembly meeting, said it was inspired by the spirit of the Covenant.

Among earlier speakers were Stanley Bruce, Australia, who said that in view of the facts his Government were of the opinion that the time had been reached when in this dispute sanctions were of no further avail and should be lifted. The alternative meant war, for which he thought they were not prepared and this view was strengthened when they considered the acute anxiety which the present situation in Europe was causing. Australia was ready to review the system of collective security and he was of the opinion the Covenant should be reinforced.

The Delegates of Uruguay, Denmark, Switzerland and Holland also indicated support for the lifting of sanctions.

LORD STANLEY LEAVES FOR THE CONTINENT

London, July 2.

Lord Stanley, Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty left London to-night for Geneva and will later proceed to Montreux where he will act as Chief British Delegate when the Dardanelles Conference resumes. He will succeed Lord Stanhope who is returning to London to take up his new duties as Commissioner of Works.

DANZIG QUESTION

London, July 2.

At the private meeting this afternoon, the League Council decided that the agenda of the special meeting to be held on Saturday should include the question of Danzig.

The President of the Danzig Senate, Herr Griselet and the League High Commissioner in Danzig, Sean Lester will be invited to attend.

DUKE OF KENT TO OPEN EXHIBITION

London, July 2.

The Duke of Kent will travel to Holland by air to-morrow and will open the exhibition of British Art at Amsterdam on Saturday.

The Duke will fly in the King's private aeroplane and will spend the night at the British Legation at Hague.

BUILDING UP THE AIR FORCE

The Question Of Personnel

WHERE CONSCRIPTION WOULD FAIL

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, June 23.

Of all the problems connected with the building up and maintenance of a powerful air force the most difficult and urgent is the provision of personnel, and their training. It is not sufficient to possess what is called "First line" strength; there must be men and equipment to meet sudden demands to repair the heavy wastage of active service.

Production of aircraft on a big scale is a fairly simple matter, provided measures are taken in good time, and this difficulty is being overcome by steps now being taken to secure the co-operation of engineering firms outside the aircraft industry, some of them to undertake the manufacture of the wings, and bodies of aeroplanes, others for the rapid production of engines.

But the basic problem, as in many other matters, is that of men, those to fly the aircraft, and those to maintain them in flying condition; and this also is true as regards air transport. It is the critical problem of confronting these countries. Great Britain, especially, which are preparing for expansion of the air lines, and at the same time for expansion of the air arm.

Whether conscription be a satisfactory method of peace time for obtaining personnel for an army or a fleet is a question on which there are divided opinions, but there can be little doubt that anything approaching compulsion of service in the case of an air force, whether for its flying or for its maintenance, could only result in fatal inefficiency.

It may be doubted whether the measures now being taken for finding personnel for our expanding Air Force are sufficient, although it is difficult to see how more could have been done in the time.

THE EMPLOYERS' PART.

Much can be done by the willing co-operation of employers giving facilities to young men who desire to join the Auxiliary Air Force or the Air Defence Territorials, and so serious is the problem, and so terrible would be the penalty of unpreparedness, that it is difficult to understand the attitude of any employer who would withhold encouragement.

The situation calls for a national effort on a larger scale, and demands the serious consideration of the Air Ministry and of the whole country.

THE QUEEN MARY AS A PEACE SHIP

SIR E BRITTEN'S
HOPE

Southampton, June 10.

Replying to the toast of his health at a luncheon given in his honour to-day by local business men, Commodore Sir Edgar Britten, commander of the Queen Mary, said:

"Such rivalry as the public interest in speed has imposed upon us is a friendly rivalry and a peaceful and sportsmanlike rivalry in the sole interest of building a firmer understanding between nations.

"Perhaps my greatest satisfaction in bringing the Queen Mary into this port lies beyond a pardonable pride in the ship herself and in her comfort and speed.

"It is a satisfaction which springs, I think, from the consciousness that the shipbuilder, the owners and the sailor are steadily charged with the responsibility of changing the character of the ocean itself from a barrier between peoples to a neighbourly highway."

Mrs. de Fashion (at children's party): "Marguerite!"

Nursemaid: "Yes, madam?"

Mrs. de Fashion: "It's time for us to go home. Which of these children is mine?"

ENGINEERING AND BUILDING

METAL BEARINGS FOR ROLLING MILLS REPLACED BY BAKELISED CLOTH

The provision and maintenance of bearings in rolling mills offers particular difficulty. The bearing pressures are usually high and the conditions generally unfavourable, and maintenance and replacement are apt to be difficult and expensive, both on account of the cost of spares and the time lost. White metal bearings have been found quite inadequate for the heaviest services, and, although bronze bearings are generally used, the wear is rapid, the neck of the shaft also soon becoming rough and grooved. Much thought and effort have been given to the problem of eliminating these defects, and it has been found that a bearing material consisting of fibrous material, such as paper or cloth, bonded with bakelite, is superior for this service to any metal. No oil is used, but the bearing is fed continuously with a stream of water. The water serves a two-fold purpose, acting as a lubricant and a more important function, keeping the bearing cool. The latter is of special importance due to the fact that the heat-conductivity of the bakelised material is very much less than that of metal.

THE LEADING PART

A leading part in this development has been taken by Messrs. The Metropolitan-Vickers Electrical Company, Limited, Trafford Park, Manchester, whose attention was called to the problem in connection with rolling-mill electrification.

SCOTTISH SHIPBUILDING ACTIVITY

Subject to the settlement of certain points of detail the Admiralty have decided to place orders with Clyde shipbuilders for five of the nine destroyers of the Tribal class of the 1936 building programme. These vessels will have a displacement of approximately 1,850 tons, and will cost round about 400,000 each. Messrs. Scott's Shipbuilding and Engineering Company, Limited, Greenock, will build two—hulls and machinery; Messrs. Wm. Denny and Brothers, Limited, Dumbarton, will build two—hulls and machinery; and Messrs. Alex. Stephen and Sons, Limited, Linthouse, will build one—hull and machinery. The latter firm have already on order one of the same class of destroyers of the 1935 programme, while the Fairfield Shipbuilding and Engineering Company have orders for two. An order for a passenger and cargo motorship of 11,000 tons has just been placed by the Anchor Line (1935), Limited, with the Fairfield Shipbuilding and Engineering Company, Limited, Govan. She will be driven by twin-screws, and will be designed for the owners' Indian service between Glasgow, Liverpool, and Bombay. This new vessel will be designed to attain a service speed of 17 knots, and will have accommodation for over 350 passengers in single and two-berth cabins, each with a private toilet and shower.

ELECTRICITY GENERATION IN SWEDEN

During the period 1920 to 1934, the annual production of electrical energy in Sweden has more than doubled, namely, from 2,600 million to 6,050 million kWh. In a report issued recently by an official committee, it is estimated that the production will reach 10,500 million kWh by 1954. It is pointed out, however, that even this large production would involve the utilisation of only about one-third of the total water-power available.

ENGINEERS AND THE DEFENCE PROGRAMME

The brief account of his stewardship which the Minister for Co-ordination of Defence (Sir Thomas Inskip) gave in the House of Commons on Thursday, May 21, contained a good deal of material which is worthy of attention by engineering manufacturers. A detailed survey, he said, had been made of the material, operative and technical resources of the country, and the Government were now ready to give experience of the actual production of war material to firms that were at present engaged on ordinary peace activities. As regards shell and shell components, 400 firms had been inspected as to their capacity to undertake this class of work, and this inspection was continuing. Full manuals had been prepared on the manufacturing processes and were now available. They were therefore in a position to enter upon the important stage of putting plans for production into operation.

In this connection, there was no doubt that gauges and machine tools were an indispensable link in the chain, and he was happy to say that not only were nearly all the necessary designs in readiness, but that here again process manuals had been prepared. The task in this connection would have been easier if there had been a reserve of supply from which firms selected for the construction of war material could have been supplied. Nevertheless, so far as the Army was concerned, he hoped that within the next few days contracts would be placed for the full supply of these articles, though even then their production would take some time and might result in some dislocation of ordinary trade. As regards aircraft, the help of motor firms was being enlisted in order that a reserve might be built up and they were being asked to build new premises or extensions at the Government expense.

These premises would remain the property of the Government and would be maintained on a care and maintenance basis so as to be capable of swift extension. Steps would be taken to prevent profiteering. Another matter which was causing great anxiety was the shortage of skilled labour, and it would be the Government's duty to search out pockets of skilled labour which might be found in many part of the country and draw back into industry those who had strayed into other industries. In this connection it is interesting to learn that it is proposed to establish War Office factories at Chorley and Bridgend, while a third site, in Scotland, is under consideration.

PUBLIC WORKS IN HYDERABAD

Interesting statistics on the great developments which have taken place in engineering and public works in Hyderabad, during the twenty-five years' rule of the present Nizam, were given in a recent broadcast at Delhi by Sir Akbar Hydari, the finance minister of the State. Agriculture is the leading industry, and the engineering works undertaken to ensure an adequate water supply throughout the State are, therefore, of vital importance. Several large reservoirs have been constructed chief among them being the Nizamagar dam, which is capable of irrigating 270,000 acres. In addition, many wells have been sunk, numbering, in one district, upwards of 1,200. The cost of these wells has been met from the Famine Prevention Fund of £2,000,000 set up by the State Government. Transport has also received attention, and, during the Nizam's reign, 3,000 miles of new roads and 1,300 miles of railway have been built, while a State-run motor-transport service has been set up, and Hyderabad linked with the Karachi-Bombay-Madras air line. At the present time a special board is considering the possibilities of air lines within the State. Municipal works have shown equal development. In Hyderabad City, a slum-clearance scheme is in operation, while an entirely new system of water supply, drainage, and electricity is planned for the near future, and similar steps have been taken in other cities.

BETTER EDUCATED THAN ENGLISH

Sir David Wilkie On Scots Love Of Reading

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, June 17.
"I think we in Scotland have been better off than the English, because I think on the whole we are better educated, and the Scotsman desires something to read more than does his fellow in the South."

That remark was made by Sir David Wilkie at a meeting of the Hospital Librarians in Edinburgh yesterday.

After considering whether they should form a committee to consider linking up with the Guild, Sir David said that if they were to appoint a committee it should be to see whether the present organization was as effective as it might be, and whether, by joining with this national body they could put all the hospitals within the area on the same high level.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

First Church Of Christ, Scientist

Subject: "God."

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, to-morrow, July 5 will be: "God."

The Golden Text will be: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." (Exodus 20:3).

Among others, the following citations from the Bible will be read: "My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee, so that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding; Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures; Then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, and find the knowledge of God. For the Lord giveth wisdom, and the Lord increaseth knowledge." (Prov. 2: 1-6).

The Lesson Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love. No wisdom is true but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is Life but the divine; no good is, but the God bestows."

"The divine Principle, or Spirit, comprehends and expresses all, and all must therefore be as perfect as the divine Principle is perfect. Nothing is new to Spirit. Nothing can be novel to eternal Mind, the author of all things, who from all eternity knoweth His own ideas. Deity was satisfied with His work. How could He be otherwise, since the spiritual creation was the outgrowth, the emanation, of His infinite self-containment and immortal wisdom?"

"The three great verities of Spirit, omnipotence, omnipresence, omniscience.—Spirit possessing all power, filling all space, constituting all Science,—contradict forever the belief that matter can be actual. These eternal verities reveal primeval existence as the radiant reality of God's creation, in which all that He has made is pronounced by His wisdom good." (Pages 275, 518, and 109).

"Comparatively few of them ever met Dr. James. But an invitation to dine at the Provost's Lodge was prized very highly. Two or three boys would generally be there on Sunday."

Afterwards, when the Provost had taken at least 10 minutes to light his pipe, the talk would range from 'ghosts to Shakespeare and from mediaeval manuscripts to P.G. Wodehouse."

Occasionally he could be induced to tell how at the age of 17 he translated the apocryphal book of Baruch from the Ethiopic. He wrote to "Queen Victoria asking permission to dedicate the translation to her."

Sir Henry Ponsonby interpreted the letter and returned it to the headmaster, suggesting that a boy with so much time on his hands "would be the better for some personal correction."

ETON'S "LOST" CHARTER
A scholar of European eminence, Dr. Monty, James continued his varied bibliographical studies nearly to the end.

"I know of only one instance when a fellow antiquarian found him at a loss. He had visited Eton to copy its great charter, and Dr. James duly conducted him to it in the library."

The visitor at once saw that this was of Edward VI., and pointed out to the Provost that he wished to see the original Henry VI. charter.

He and Dr. James thereupon began a search. Not finding it in the library, the Provost took his visitor to the muniment room.

There, after a turning out of the contents of dusty drawers, it was discovered stowed away in a corner of the room without any indication whatever of its unique value."

A first-class coach was reserved, and the Emperor sat with his children in a non-smoking compartment. He bowed repeatedly in acknowledgment of the respectful greetings of those in the station. He will probably return on Monday.

The Emperor and his family were cheered by dense crowds on their arrival in Glasgow last night. Lord Inverclyde was at the station to welcome his guests.

THE EMPEROR GOES TO SCOTLAND

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, June 19.
The Emperor of Abyssinia left Euston yesterday for Scotland, where he will have a few days' rest at Wemyss Castle, Renfrewshire, as the guest of Lord Inverclyde.

He was accompanied by his children, the Crown Prince, Princess Tsehai, and the Duke of Harar, as well as by Dr. Martin, the Abyssinian Minister in London, and one or two members of the secretariat. Two members of the special branch of Scotland Yard were with the party.

A first-class coach was reserved, and the Emperor sat with his children in a non-smoking compartment. He bowed repeatedly in acknowledgment of the respectful greetings of those in the station. He will probably return on Monday.

GOSSIP OF THE WEEK

Mail News From Home

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, June 23.

That Sir Samuel Hoare should have spoken in yesterday's India debate caused some surprise. He had intended to speak as a backbencher, and delivered from the box a speech he would have made from behind Mr. Churchill.

India, however, created little of its former excitement in the House of Commons. Sir Samuel Hoare and Mr. Churchill had one of their old exchanges, but in a thin House it lacked the fire of last year's battles.

Mr. Churchill's description of Sir Samuel, as a Jonah who has come back from the sea, with the addition of the trend of Neptune, was the brightest moment of the day.

Apart from the political heads of the India Office, six Ministers have now made speeches on the India Bill or the Orders issued under it. These are the Prime Minister, the Lord President of the Council, the Attorney-General, the Chancellor of the Duchy, the First Commissioner of Works and the First Lord of the Admiralty.

"RATE FOR THE KING'S MARRIAGE"
Col Sandeman Allen, who claimed that he was one of the only two members of Lloyd's in the House, gave an interesting recent example of an odd but legitimate form of insurance during the Budget Report debate.

An inquiry was made as to the rate against the King being married before the Coronation.

It might be said that that is a gamble. No such thing. The inquiry was a genuine business inquiry by a well-known manufacturer of China Coronation mugs.

If a marriage took place before the Coronation two portraits would be necessary on the mugs instead of one, and it would mean that all the expenditure and the work would have been wasted.

Col Sandeman Allen's reference to weather policies concluded with a hit at the "promoters of socialist fetes who like to ensure against weather destroying the profits that such fetes may make."

Generations of Etonians regarded Dr. M. R. James, who died yesterday, as the incarnation of wisdom. The Provost took no part in curricular life. This aloofness and his far-away look made him an almost legendary figure among the boys.

Comparatively few of them ever met Dr. James. But an invitation to dine at the Provost's Lodge was prized very highly. Two or three boys would generally be there on Sunday."

Afterwards, when the Provost had taken at least 10 minutes to light his pipe, the talk would range from 'ghosts to Shakespeare and from mediaeval manuscripts to P.G. Wodehouse."

At present Air-Commodore Goble is second in command of the Royal Australian Air Force. In exchange the R.A.F. are sending Air-Commodore H. R. Nichol to Australia.

There is a story of Air-Commodore Goble when he was a Lieutenant in the 1st Fighter Squadron at Dunkirk. One day the young Australian was standing by his machine for "disciplinary reasons."

Suddenly three terrific detonations rang out. He pointed with a shout to a German machine which had bombed one of the monitors, anchored outside the harbour.

He dived into his Sopwith Pup, two of the watch swung his propeller while the adjusted his goggles, and in a few moments he was climbing in pursuit.

A very smart piece of work ended with his bringing down the enemy plane over its own aerodrome at Ghislalles.

"OFFICES OF PROFIT"
Had three members intended to resign their seats yesterday instead of two an awkward constitutional point would have arisen.

There are now only two offices of profit under the Crown for which members can apply—the Stewardship of the Chiltern Hundreds and the Stewardship of the Manor of Northstead.

Formerly the Stewardship of any Royal manor could be used as a means of resigning a seat in the House.

For some reason it was not until 1740 that any member took advantage of the Act of Queen Anne's reign. Then Sir Watkin Wynne applied for the Stewardship of the Manor of Bromfield and Gale in the County of Denbigh, and thus was able to leave Parliament.

"THE COUNTRY DOCTOR"

Five new stars at one swoop were added to the Hollywood armament when Darryl F. Zanuck secured the adorable Dionne Quintuplets to head the cast of his "The Country Doctor," the grand new human-interest picture showing at the King's and Alhambra Theatres to-day.

Everything that has ever been said and written about these marvelous babies pales into insignificance beside the actual sight of them playing and cooing, acting real roles in a real story and surrounded by such Hollywood stars as Jean Hersholt, June Lang, Summerville and Dorothy Peterson.

A courageous doctor of the Canadian backwoods is the hero of the picture, played by Jean Hersholt. He is a simple, earthy man and the picture follows his triumphs, his tragedies, his near-defeat and ultimate victory as he fights the pains and ills of his people.

After he has conquered a diphtheria epidemic with the aid of serum flown in by his handsome nephew, Michael Whalen, also a doctor, Hersholt departs for Montreal to convince the company head of the need for a hospital in his territory.

Hersholt's blunt manner incurs the wrath of the company men. He returns to find that Whalen's romance with June Lang has antagonized her father, Robert Barrat, who is manager of the post, and that he had been shorn of power, ousted from his post to face a desolate old age.

Despite the cruel treatment he has received, Hersholt goes on one more deed of mercy, and in a scene that is true with drama and mirth, facilitates at the birth of the quintuplets. As the news spreads through the world, he becomes a hero, flattered, honoured. But only the welfare of his babies concerns the happy doctor.

The work of a magnificent cast in "The Country Doctor" is considerably aided by the fine script Sonya Levien has provided and by the handsome direction Henry King has accorded the picture.

not find a market for it, so asked for them to be returned.

A month later complainant sent a lot for the complete stock on consignment. Only eight bottles were sold.

NOTICED SIMILARITY
Accused said that he did not know that complainant had registered his ink at the Supreme Court. When he noticed the similarity of the two inks, he did not draw complainant's attention to the fact, but only asked that his stock be returned.

SUNDAY: "THE IRISH IN US"

BREAK OF HEARTS.

There is but one way to review the powerful emotional drama, "Break of Hearts," starring Katharine Hepburn and Charles Boyer, which opened yesterday at the Star Theatre. It is to say that this beautiful love story is one of the most inspiring pictures which has been filmed in recent years and that the stars give a brilliant performance that surpasses all forecasts.

It is a new Hepburn that comes to the screen in this production and one who is more alluring than ever. In the role of a young composer who marries a famous maestro, she combines all the genius that brought her fame in her previous films with a new-found pictorial beauty and a vibrant warmth of interpretation that is irresistible.

Charles Boyer, idol of the French stage and screen, has a magnetic charm that promises to send him to the height of popularity as a result of his work in "Break of Hearts."

The picture tells the story of the making, breaking and mending of a romance, and not in recent years have such enchanting love scenes been played on the screen as those between the bewitching Hepburn and Boyer.

John Beal, who will be remembered for his fine portrayal of the title role in "The Little Minister" with Miss Hepburn, plays a romantic role that adds further laurels to his soaring fame.

BOTTLES OF INK IN COURT

Trade Mark Offence Alleged

BIG FINE IMPOSED

Chan Hing-kee, alias CHAN Ho-yu, of the Hong Kee Book-stall, No. 123 Shanghai Street was fined $75 at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday for alleged infringement of a registered trade mark belonging to Wong Chee-hien.

The accused appeared on a remanded summons for possession of certain bottles of ink on which a mark so nearly resembling a trade mark as to be calculated to deceive, was falsely applied.

Mr. M. K. Lo appeared for the defence, and Mr. E. D. Evans was for the prosecution.

Accused was additionally ordered to pay $100 costs.

Accused in evidence said that he had sold ink of the "Eagle and Globe" brand since four or five years ago.

In the latter part of last October he commenced business relations with the complainant firm, who offered ink on consignment for him to sell. Witness noticed that the ink also bore the "Eagle and Globe" brand which resembled the ink he already sold. He could

Have all rings you the glorious red of the wild Hibiscus flower in a really new kind of lipstick called "Tattoo Hawaiian". It's a new shade of red, unusually bright and luscious... almost a Chinese lacquer red, a shade that gives life, dash, and vivid individuality. It's brilliant, saucy... deliciously daring... yet not hard to wear because with all its vividness it blends with the lips with a soft, sincere, feminine warmth they have never had before. This shade has been dreamed of ever since the first lipstick was first made, but because it would turn purple on the lips could not be used. Now, "Tattoo" and "Tattoo" only... after this stunning shade in an infinitely desirable, extremely new, dressy stick which positively will not turn even the least bit purple. It can't! ### DANGEROUS ASSAULT

Bail in the sum of $250 was allowed at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday when Cheung Lin To, 26, described as a bricklayer, of No. 143 Cheung Sha Wan Road, appeared on remand before Mr. E. Himsforth charged with unlawfully and maliciously wounding See Hok Chuen.

Detective Sergeant R. R. Ellis said that the complainant who had been lying in hospital dangerously ill for some time, was now on the road to recovery.

The case was further remanded formally for a week.

MOTORISTS IN COURT

Castle Peak Road Incident

CARS COLLISION

Summoned for failing to drive with due care and caution along Castle Peak Road about 6.15 p.m. on June 6, E. R. MacDiamid, driver of private car No. 3527, was fined $25, before Mr. Macdadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday.

Traffic Sergeant J. Scrim said that accused was driving his car down Lanchikok Hill towards the Prison. Whilst turning the half-pin bend at the top of the hill, defendant, for some unknown reason, drove to the off-side of the road and struck a rock. He managed to straighten the car which then struck private car No. 1503 which was on the left side of the road and going in the same direction. Damage was caused to the rear mudguard of car No. 1503.

Mr. MacDiamid that he had at that time just come out of hospital, and he thought he must have been driving too much that day.

The Magistrate remarked that as defendant had just come out of hospital, he must be held responsible. If he was not in a fit condition to drive a car, he should, not have attempted to do so as there was also risk to other users of the road.

NO LICENCE

F. G. Thomas, driver of private car No. 3936, was summoned for failing to produce his licence to a policeman in uniform at Saigon Street on June 6, and causing an obstruction with his car in Saigon Street by the Majestic Theatre.

A fine of $8 was imposed on the two summonses.

DANGEROUS SPEED

A W. Martin, driver of private car No. 3357, was fined $40 by Mr. W. Schofield, at the Central Magistracy yesterday, on a summons for driving at a dangerous speed in Electric Road on June 19.

A representative appeared on behalf of defendant and admitted the summons.

Traffic Sub-Inspector S. C. Saunders said defendant drove between 32 and 35 miles an hour from Ah. King's alway to the Electric Company. It was a controlled area, the speed of motor cars being limited to 20 miles an hour.

DID NOT STOP

Driver Failed To Report Accident Early

Fan Chi-kuen, driver of private car No. 3450, was summoned before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Court yesterday for having failed to stop after a collision which occurred in Caine Road on June 23 and also with having failed to report within a reasonable space of time.

Defendant was fined $20 on the second summons and the hearing was fixed for July 14 on the first summons.

Defendant said that he stopped after knocking a little girl down but she got up and ran away.

Traffic Sergt. Yone stated that the girl had received a fracture of the right leg. The defendant stopped his car after the accident but only got out and looked back before driving away again.

Defendant did not report the accident until seven hours later. The accident occurred about noon.

WANCHAI MISHAP

The sequel to an accident which occurred in Hennessy Road on the night of June 14 involving private car No. 2992, driven by Hau Yuk-sang, was heard yesterday in the Central Court before Mr. W. Schofield. A man was knocked down by the car which did not stop after the accident.

The defendant said that he did not stop because a crowd gathered and were hostile towards him.

Traffic Sergt. Clarke stated that this was not so. The injured man was walking across the road and saw two cars approaching one from the West and the other from the East. The car from the West knocked him down, the other passed safely. The place was well lighted and the injured man said that no crowd gathered.

Sergt. Clarke said that the man was in a very serious condition.

EPIDEMIC OF WIRE THEFTS

Telephone Company Victimised

PRISON TERM FOR OFFENDER

An epidemic of telephone wire thefts in which eighteen cases occurred between Mar. 23 and April 9, was mentioned by Mr. T. Davies of the Hong Kong Telephone Company while prosecuting a 24-year-old unemployed charged with intent to steal "by ripping, breaking or severing from a staircase a quantity of telephone wire" at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday. The estimated damage in rewiring in the present case was $2.50, said Mr. Davies.

As a result of a telephone message at 10.30 a.m. Mr. Davies went to Canton Road, where he noticed that telephone wires had been severed and broken from the wall. A Chinese named Yu Che Kong informed witness that he had detained a man (accused) at No. 104 Canton Road as he had caught the latter in the act of tearing down the wires.

Leung Fuk Hing, (accused) pleaded that he was visiting the building and was arrested for stealing some wires. He had nothing to do with it.

In sentencing Leung to six weeks' imprisonment, the Magistrate said that he accepted the story related by the witnesses for the prosecution.

Accused admitted a conviction three months ago for larceny.

AT THE KOWLOON DOCKS

Theft of lead valued at $5 led to the appearance before Mr. E. Himsforth yesterday at the Kowloon Magistracy of Lau Foo, 17, odd job cooke of the Kowloon Docks. It was explained that Lau was seen attempting to hand the lead over to another man.

The lead had probably been taken from a foundry in the docks. Accused was fined $5 or in default two weeks' imprisonment. Sergt. T. Marriot, of the Dock Police, appeared as complainant.

RIFLE RANGE

Nine pounds of lead stolen from the Army Rifle Range at Kowloon City was admitted by Chan Tsai, 36, unemployed when charged before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday. A fine of $10 or in default, two weeks' imprisonment was imposed.

Inspector Portallion said that the accused was seen in the vicinity of the Rifle Range carrying the lead in a sack. Staff Sergt. Naylor, of the Royal Engineers appeared as complainant.

Both his legs and an arm were broken. His face was smashed in and he is now a cripple.

The case was remanded for hearing on July 14.

Around the Courts

BANISHEE AND THEFT

Wong Wing, 38, unemployed was charged with the larceny of four packets of Pirate cigarettes yesterday when he appeared before Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Court. An additional charge of returning from banishment was also preferred.

On the first charge defendant was sentenced to three months and on the second to nine months. Defendant stated that he had returned to the Colony to look for some money for the treatment of his paralysed mother.

Sub-Inspector Sabey prosecuted.

LARCENY BY PERSON

Charged with the larceny of a purse from the person of Chan Hung, Li Yat, 28, appeared before Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Court yesterday and was sentenced to four months.

It was stated that about 8 p.m. on Thursday night, District Watchman No. 77, was on duty in Hollywood Road and was watching a crowd around a medicine hawk. He saw the defendant extract the purse from the pocket of the complainant.

LARCENY BY SERVANT

Lui Chui, 18, a servant boy, was charged with larceny by servant on 58 books from the Po Tak Paper shop in Hollywood Road, and Lo Shun, 24, a paper maker, was charged with receiving, when they appeared before Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Court yesterday.

Det.-Sergt. T. Cashman said that about 11 a.m. on July 1, the second defendant was arrested with a bundle of books. He admitted getting them from the first defendant. First defendant was questioned and admitted stealing them from his shop. He said that he had taken them to the second defendant to sell.

Second defendant was sentenced to one month, the first defendant being remanded 24 hours for enquiries.

BIRCHING FOR SNATCHER

Appearing on remand before Mr. J. H. B. Lee charged with larceny from the person of Miss Lucy Tang, of the Government Civil Hospital, of a hand bag while she was walking near the Netherlands Hospital, Chan Kin, was sentenced to three months and 8 strokes of the birch yesterday.

BANISHEE

Li Sang, a returned banishee was charged before Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Court yesterday and was sentenced to nine months. Defendant was banished for 10 years on December 20, last year.

Sub-Inspector Sabey prosecuted.

HEROIN PILLS

A charge of possession of 2,757 heroin pills was preferred against Wong Sui Fai, a married woman, when she appeared before Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Court yesterday.

Det.-Sergt. Riddell stated that the pills were found in a chest of drawers at No. 148, Queen's Road West.

Defendant was fined $2,000 or 6 months.

SLY BROTHELS

A fine of $50 or a month's gaol was passed by Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Court yesterday on Sam Yip, 66, a widow, who was charged with keeping a sly brothel at No. 35, Upper Lascar Road.

Chan Sze, 51, another widow was also charged with keeping a sly brothel at No. 198, Wellington Street. Defendant failed to make her appearance in Court and her bail of $50 was estreated.

Ho Hing, 44, a married woman, also charged with keeping a sly brothel at No. 253, Hollywood Road, pleaded not guilty and said that the girls on the floor were her relatives. The case was remanded for 24 hours.

In all three cases, Sub-Inspector Whelan prosecuted.

STOLE FROM FRIEND

Sentence of six weeks was passed on Lo Tai, 24, by Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Court yesterday when he appeared charged with the simple larceny of $104 from Cheung Pui Wan.

Det.-Sergt. Guld stated that the defendant, the complainant and a friend went to a tea shop for some tea and while sitting down took off their coats. The defendant made an excuse of leaving the room and while doing so extracted the money from the complainant's pocket.

RICKSHAW FULLERS

Fines of $2 each were inflicted on two rickshaw pullers who were summoned before Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Court yesterday charged pulling their vehicle in a negligent manner on the Peak.

Sub-Inspector R. R. McEwen stated that the defendants operated one vehicle and they took a passenger to the War Memorial Hospital and waited outside. Just then, Miss Sutton came out and they beckoned to her. Miss Sutton got into the ricksha and the defendants ran too fast. At a hair-bend at Jardine's Corner, near Homestead flats, the ricksha tipped over and Miss Sutton was thrown out, receiving injuries to her back. She also suffered shock.

"We have to make an example of this case as this is not the first time it has happened," added the prosecuting officer. "I should think that with two pullers it would be safer."

CONSTABLE
COMMENDED*Smart Work In Effecting Arrest*POSSESSION OF A FORGED NOTE

In connection with a forged banknote case, which was heard by Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Magistracy yesterday, a Chinese constable was commended by the Magistrate for his good work in trailing down the defendant who attempted to utter a forged Hongkong & Shanghai Bank $5 note.

So Chan Wah, aged 23, goldsmith, was charged with having in possession a forged $5 note with intent to utter, and was convicted and sentenced to three months' hard labour.

Det.-Inspector M. Murphy prosecuted. He told the Court that at about 9 p.m. on June 18, and the period after that, defendant went to three different shops and tendered the forged $5 note when making small purchases, in each case not exceeding 16 cents. At the first and second shops he was told that the note was bad but he tendered it a third time and was arrested.

Inspector Murphy further said that defendant had the intent to defraud because he had in possession when arrested $4 in notes and $1.56 in coins all genuine money.

The constable who arrested defendant, inpector Murphy went on, found a new $5 note which he believed to be a forgery, but on the way to the Police Station the note disappeared, as the constable allowed defendant to keep it.

THE TRAIL

P.C. C433 Chan Yuk, giving evidence said that he had followed defendant from the first shop where he (defendant) tendered the forged $5 note, and made the arrest at the third one.

Continuing witness said: "I found a new $5 note in his (defendant's) watch pocket of his trousers. After having done so, I asked defendant to replace it in his pocket. Just as I was taking the defendant out of that shop, he swung his hand and I asked what he was doing. He said nothing. I immediately searched him, but I found the note in the watch pocket missing. Eventually, defendant was brought to the Police Station."

Det. Sergt. Mann deposed that the forged note was numbered F627,528 issued in 1933.

After further evidence, defendant made a statement in the dock, saying:

"I am a goldsmith in Canton. I came to Hong Kong by the s.s. Lee Hong and I received that note. I did not know the note was a genuine or a bad one, and I had no intention to defraud. I have parents, a wife and children in Canton. They are all dependant on me."

He then asked His Worship to consider carefully before convicting him under the circumstances he had just mentioned.

Continuing he said: "I tendered the $5 because I owe a man, Shum Chun of 'Felix Villa' $4 and another man of the American Club $3—I changed the $5 to get small change to refund the money."

His Worship disbelieved his story and he was accordingly sentenced.

THIEF LAND IN HOSPITAL

A man who attempted to escape from detention in a room in King's Park Mansions, prior to the arrival of the police, by jumping from the window, is now in the Government Civil Hospital suffering from a broken ankle.

This was revealed at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday where a larceny charge against him was remanded formally for a week.

Detective Sergt. Davis explained that Wong Mui Tai was alleged to have stolen a medicine glass from car No. 2736, owned by Mr. Wan Liss of No. 2A King's Park Mansions, which was parked in Austin Road, near the Kowloon Bowling Green Club.

Accused was arrested and was being detained in Mr. Wan Liss's apartment while the Police were communicated with. Before their arrival, accused jumped from a window and sustained a fractured ankle.

HIGHWAY
ROBBERY*Violence Used On
Japanese Widow*ALLEGED CULPRIT CHARGED

At Tehi Kawa, a Japanese widow was the victim of a highway robbery with violence at Tung Wah Eastern Hospital Road on the afternoon of June 21, in consequence of which Tsoi Chu, 20, unemployed, of Singapore, alleged to be responsible for the outrage was charged before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday. Complainant was robbed of a purse containing $8 and a gold hair pin set with a jade stone. The article valued at $45 was recovered.

The case is a committal one, and after evidence was heard, hearing was adjourned to July 6 noon.

Det.-Inspector A. E. Carey prosecuted. He stated that on the day in question at about 12.45 p.m. complainant engaged a rickshaw at the Causeway Bay tram terminus from where she proceeded along the Tung Wah Eastern Hospital Road to the Japanese temple. Defendant was following her.

Complainant remained in the temple until about 1.30 when she left, but no rickshaw being available she walked to the terminus again. Half way she saw defendant squatting by the side of the road. When complainant had passed him he came from behind and went in front as if to stop her. He seized complainant by the kimono under which was the purse. Defendant threw the latter on to the ground and took the purse, and then ran away towards the Tung Wah Eastern Hospital. Complainant raised the alarm but nobody was there to lend her any assistance. Later she reported the affair to the Police.

THE ARREST

On June 25, on information received, defendant was arrested outside No. 1 Tai Yuen Street in the afternoon.

On June 21, the day of the alleged robbery, a man bought a purse from defendant for three cents.

After being charged, defendant made a statement to the effect that he did snatch things and that a man, one Leung Piu asked him to do it. The jade ornament had been taken by that man, who kept it for his own use.

On June 28 an identification parade was conducted and defendant was lined up with eight others all dressed similarly and of the same build. Complainant identified defendant as being responsible for robbing her without hesitation.

Complainant said in the witness box that as a result of being thrown on the ground by defendant, her right elbow and left leg below the knee cap suffered abrasion.

The hearing was adjourned as mentioned.

ANOTHER REMAND*Alleged Robber Still In Hospital

A further remand of a week was granted at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday in the case in which a 44-year-old unemployed is charged with armed robbery on board a junk on March 11.

Detective Sergeant Davies of the Water Police, said that accused, Wong Yee, was in hospital.

The accused is alleged to have participated in an armed robbery with five others not in custody, when they stole $270 in money from Ng Yee, 40 master of the Yee Kee Sea Products Shop, No. 44 Praya West, Shau Ki Wan.

The robbery is alleged to have taken place while junk No. 2094K was off Steep Island. The men are alleged to have been armed with revolvers and a rifle.

A second charge of possession of a .45 revolver and five rounds of ammunition is also levied against the accused.

NO FERRY FARE

Lau Wai-yuen, 24, book-keeper of Tai Po Road, was fined $15 at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday for attempting to avoid payment on the ferry. Man Sang on July 2. The Magistrate said he took a serious view of the case as the accused was well dressed and an educated man. Mr. A. Black, of the Ferry Company appeared as complainant.

TOBACCO UNDER

Ordered*WOMAN FINED

Admitting the possession of four lbs. of Chinese tobacco and thus securing the discharge of another man who was charged with the possession, So Sin-lam, a female, appeared before Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Court and was fined $20.

Mr. D. Brittain Evans appeared for the defendant and said that the tobacco was for the defendant's use.

R. O. Ward for the prosecution stated that the tobacco was concealed under some bananas in two rattan baskets. R.O. Ward applied for the confiscation of the bananas which Mr. Evans opposed saying that the true article for confiscation was the vehicle in which the tobacco was carried, namely the baskets. Mr. Evans suggested that a few of the bananas be confiscated "but not the whole blessed lot."

His Worship however ruled that the bananas be confiscated.

The R.M.A. "Dorado" left the Colony yesterday at 11 a.m. carrying 1,000 kilos of freight and 54,667 kilos of mail. There was no passenger carried on this trip.

ANOTHER CASE

Sentence of six months was passed on Sin Kau, who was also remanded in a case where he was charged with the larceny of a gold hair pick. The defendant appeared yesterday before Mr. J. H. B. Lee at the Central Court.

In passing sentence His worship remarked that if the defendant were not so young a severer sentence would be given.

DIOCESAN BOYS
PRIZE DAY*Lady Caldecott Presents The Year's Awards*GOVERNOR'S SPEECH

A brilliant report of scholastic as well as athletic achievement was contained in the report presented by the Acting Head Master, the Rev. L. L. Nash, at the annual speech day and prize giving of the Diocesan Boys School, which was held yesterday afternoon.

The Great Hall of the School which was decorated with the school flag, the Union Jack and the flag of the Chinese Republic presented an animated scene when long before the arrival of His Excellency the Governor, Sir Andrew Caldecott and Lady Caldecott, it was crowded with proud parents, friends and the pupils themselves.

REPORT BY HEAD

The Rev. L. L. Nash revealed that of 350 boys attending the school in the year under review, 54 boys had not failed to make an appearance at any classes or missed a single day at school.

His Excellency the Governor and Lady Caldecott (who presented the prizes), arrived accompanied by Captain W. J. R. Cragg, A.D.C.

Among those present (including members of the School Committee) were: Dr. R. H. Kotewall, who presided at the function, and Mrs. Kotewall, Dr. A. R. Wellington, Director of Medical and Sanitary Services, and Mrs. Wellington, Mr. G. R. Sayer (Director of Schools) and Mrs. Sayer, Sir William Hornell, Hon. Dr. W. S. Ts'o, Mr. Peter H. Sin, Chairman of the Old Boy's Association, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cassidy, Lt. Col. H. B. L. Dowbiggin, Mr. E. Cock, Mr. C. Blaker, Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Higgs, Rev. H. W. Baines, Rev. N. V. Halward, Dr. Li Shu Fan, Mr. E. J. Edwards (Inspector of Schools) and Mrs. Edwards, Mr. I. H. Williams, and Mr. George She.

BOUQUET OF FLOWERS

Following the arrival of His Excellency the Governor and the official party which proceeded to the platform in the School Hall, Master A. S. Bertram presented Lady Caldecott with a pretty bouquet of flowers, amid vociferous hand-clapping from the assembly.

A hymn "The Lord of Health" was then sung at the termination of which the Rev. H. W. Baines led in prayer.

Following the speeches and prize giving, the School Song was sung, and proceedings terminated with a Blessing by the Rev. N. V. Halward.

Tea was served during the afternoon, and the band of the 2nd Bn. Royal Welch Fusiliers (by courtesy of Lt. Col. R. E. Hindson and officers) played varied selections.

Mr. Lindsay-Lafford on the piano, accompanied the hymn and School Song.

DR. KOTEWALL'S SPEECH

Addressing the gathering Dr. Kotewall said:—

In the absence of the Bishop of Victoria, the duty of presiding at this pleasing function devolves on me as the Vice-Chairman of the School Committee. First of all, I should like, in the name of the whole School, to extend to His Excellency the Governor and Lady Caldecott a most cordial and hearty welcome on this their first visit. We are grateful to them for sparing the time to come here to encourage us to-day. More particularly do we appreciate Lady Caldecott's gracious presence, knowing as we do how necessary it is for her to conserve her strength.

In welcoming His Excellency I take special pleasure in telling him that his visit happily maintains a well-established tradition of keen interest which successive Governors have taken in the D.B.S. Without delving too much into the past, I would recall how the School found itself in difficulty some seven or eight years ago. So great was that difficulty that the power of the State had to be invoked; and Sir Cecil Clementi and afterwards Sir William Peel readily and generously came to our assistance. During the last two or three years, favourable conditions have been re-established, thanks to the inspiration of Bishop Hall, the high administrative and scholastic capacity of the present Headmaster Mr. Sargent, the loyal co-operation of the staff, the generous assistance of many friends, and the hard work and ability of the Committee. I am confident that when His Excellency sees how anxiously we have striven to justify that help and how well we have rebuilt on it, he will be no less eager than his predecessors to maintain the happy co-operation of Church and State, which has made the D.B.S. one of the finest schools in the Far East.

OLD HEADMASTER TO RETURN

I have just referred to the signal service which Mr. Sargent has rendered to the School. I hope that I may now be permitted to say what I could not say before, that when Mr. Sargent went on furlough in January last, there was a possibility of his not coming back to Hong Kong, for family reasons. News has been received by the Acting Headmaster, the Rev. L. L. Nash, that Mr. Sargent has arranged to return to us in October next, and is keener than ever to serve the School. This is indeed heartening news.

Speaking as a member of the School Committee, I express regret at the resignation of Sir William Shenton and Mr. Archibut, both of whom for many years laboured hard and well for the School as members of its Committee. Among the Committee members on this platform to-day you probably miss Sir Henry Pollock, Mr. Compton, Mr. Way and Professor Forster. They are out of the Colony, and we all share their regret at their absence.

THE THANKS

The Committee desire through me to associate themselves with the Acting Headmaster in his expression of indebtedness to all helpers mentioned in his Report. They also wish to tender Mr. Nash's tribute to the ability and loyalty of his staff. There is, however, the absence of one name, and that the most important of all, in Mr. Nash's acknowledgment of good work done. That name is obvious to you all: it is Mr. Nash's own. In the exacting position of Acting Headmaster of a school with a big reputation to maintain, Mr. Nash has had a big burden to bear, and has borne it with consummate success. To him the School owes a deep debt of gratitude.

And now, once more on behalf of the School, I tender to Your Excellency and Lady Caldecott our most grateful thanks for your kind presence. In the comparatively short time Your Excellency has been our Governor you have proved yourself to be an administrator of ability, understanding and high ideals. In such hands, the D.B.S. and all other educational institutions in the Colony may trust their future with hope and confidence.

HEADMASTER'S REPORT

Rev. Nash then read his report as follows:—

The Acting Headmaster's report this year will be comparatively short, not because there is little to say but partly because on the analogy that no news is good news a short report indicates that the work and life of the school is progressing favourably without any major changes, and partly because last year's report had to cover the activities of 18 months. This year's report is confined strictly to the current academic year.

CHEAP AT THE PRICE

The Government, in their Air Navigation Bill now before Parliament, are making timely provision for a very large extension in the Air Services of the Empire. In proportion to the magnitude of the proposed developments, the additional contribution which is being asked from the taxpayer is relatively modest, involving an increase in the annual maximum subsidy from $1,000,000 to only $1,500,000 for a period prolonged from 1934 to 1935. Of this sum $800,000 is to be allotted to Imperial Airways for the cheapening, acceleration and expansion of the inter-Imperial services. Air mail is to be carried within the Empire at 1½d. per half ounce; the schedules are to be reduced to 4½ days on the South African route, 6 or 7 days on the Australian, 2½ days on the East African, and so forth; and we are to have 9 services a week to Egypt, 5 to India, 2 each to Australia and South Africa, and similar improvements to other parts of the Empire. Altogether the air route mileage within the Empire will reach no fewer than 41,000 miles, or nearly twice the mileage at present operated by any other country except the United States. It is an ambitious plan which will take some little time to mature, but it is one which will give the British Empire as undisputed a superiority in civil aviation as it already possesses in merchant shipping.

Precise details as to the remaining application of the enhanced subsidy are not yet disclosed, but part of it will go to the North Atlantic and South Atlantic services now under contemplation, as well as to the Scandinavian service operated by British Airways. The subsidy about to be granted to the latter company marks a break in the subsidy monopoly hitherto enjoyed by Imperial Airways. The Government have declared, very properly, that they have no intention of subsidising other concerns to compete with Imperial Airways on the routes already operated by that company, since such a course would merely increase the cost without affording any guarantee of improved services. At the same time there appears no good reason why other suitable enterprises should not be assisted in the operation of new routes, and the proposed subsidy to British Airways is a case in point. Similar considerations no doubt apply to the opening up of the South Atlantic air route, for example, for which five different groups are already stated to have submitted proposals.

Socialists have objected to the Bill on the familiar ground that the whole of the Air Services ought to be taken over as a public monopoly outright. Such an argument would have been more convincing if there were evidence that anything was lacking in the quality,

CHECK ON GOLD DRAIN

Holdings Show An Increase

PARIS FIGURES

London, July 2.
For the first time since March 28 the Bank of France returns reveal an increase of gold holdings, which, although they only amount to £607,000, are nevertheless noteworthy as they show at long last a definite check on the drain of yellow metal out of France.

On the other hand, however, some quarters criticise the smallness of the increase, pointing out that although the outward flow of capital may have ceased confidence apparently has not yet returned to a point at which currency hoarders will disgorge any large volume of holdings.

In this respect it is interesting to observe that the British bank note circulation figure reached another record last month, which, while primarily attributable to the holiday demand, demonstrates the reluctance of Continental hoarders to part with sterling notes.—Reuter.

WORLD TITLE FIGHT

Schmeling Insists On Rights.

BRADDOCK BOUT

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Hamburg, July 3.

“I insist on my rights,” responded Max Schmeling when he was asked about his plans concerning the world-championship challenge.

“The New York Boxing Commission not only promised me a fight with Braddock for the world championship title but actually announced that the winner of the Schmeling-Louis fight would have the sole right to challenge the title holder, Braddock.

In going to the United States to fight Louis my only aim was and is to bring back the world championship for Germany. Another fight with Louis is quite out of the question. I have beaten him and now demand a fight against Braddock.”

Despite all disconcerting reports from the United States, which Schmeling considers are but manoeuvres to stimulate public interest, the German champion fully expects a fight with Braddock to take place in the coming September, and according to a Hamburg organiser, Rothenburg, very likely in Germany, and if so in Berlin. Rothenburg believes that the lack of unanimity among the managers of the United States makes the prospect of a fight in Germany all the stronger.—Transocean News Service.

BIGGER TIN QUOTA

Siam Wants To Reduce Unemployment

Bangkok, July 2.
The Siamese Foreign Minister, interviewed by Reuter to-day, declared that Siam, while favouring a continuation of tin production restrictions, wants a quota of 18,000 to 20,000 tons on the ground that many provinces would find it possible to mine the metal and there is a real need to reduce unemployment.—Reuter.

efficiency or economy of the services operated under the existing system. On this point the facts speak for themselves. The subsidy paid to Imperial Airways per ton miles in 1934 was about 2s. against 11s. paid by the Italians, 5s. by the French, and 4s. by the Germans, while the popularity of Imperial Airways is attested by their passenger bookings, in and out of Croydon, which exceed those of all their five Continental competitors put together. It is natural that everyone should look forward to the day when air transport will be able to dispense with any outside financial support. But commercial aviation is still in its infancy. The common experience of all countries shows that it cannot survive unless it is nursed out of public funds. To the people of Great Britain it surely ought to be a matter for pride rather than for criticism that we have been able to achieve so much at comparatively so small a charge on the taxpayer's pocket.

RUBBER REACHES HIGH POINT

Large Buying By America

LONDON TIGHTNESS

London, July 2.
A bout of substantial rubber buying by America and the Continent during the past fortnight, much of which has been bought direct from the Far East on c.i.f. terms, carried spot rubber in London to the highest point since September, 1934.

The home trade offtake also continues excellent and speculative interest is becoming livelier, with the realisation that world stocks have fallen 27,168 tons to 499,166 tons this year. The drop in United Kingdom stocks of 34,155 tons since March 2 is actually causing some tightness in rubber in London.

Moreover, the restriction regulations are generally regarded as growing steadily more efficient, as evidenced by the Netherlands East Indies' decision to replace the cumbersome extraordinary duty on native rubber with an individual control system, which is understood to treble the natives' profit without increasing their output.—Reuter.

“BE FRIENDLY”

Hitler Makes Appeal To Olympic Sportsmen

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Berlin, July 2.

The following proclamation was issued by Dr. Goebbels, Minister of Propaganda, and printed in all German newspapers:

“In accordance with the wish of the Fuehrer, Germany has made preparations for the Olympic Games of 1936, such as hardly any other country has made before.

“Hundreds of thousands of foreign guests must be given a worthy welcome, and be treated to an especially brilliant example of German hospitality. I am sure that every German will make it a point of honour to be friendly and obliging to the foreign visitors who are all under the protection of the Reich, and to render them every assistance when they are in need of help.”—Transocean News Service.

ORGANISING MEETING

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Berlin, July 2.

The session of the International Olympic Committee which is scheduled to open on July 23, will be attended by a greater number of Committee members than any previous session according to the President of the Organizing Committee of the Berlin Olympics, Secretary of State Dr. Lewald who pointed out that this large attendance is not only due to Berlin's favourable geographical position but also to the importance of the decisions to be reached at the forthcoming session.

The most important of these questions will be the question of assignment of the 1940 Olympic Games, which will be definitely settled at the Berlin Congress. The various applications for the 1940 Games do not only include Tokyo and Helsinki, but also London which recently announced its candidature; and Rome, which after withdrawing its application, filed it again after termination of the Abyssinian war.—Transocean News Service.

MORE ARRIVE

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Berlin, July 3.

The third contingent of the Japanese Olympic sportsmen, numbering 130, arrived in Berlin on Friday, and like the other two contingents were all eager to go to their permanent quarters.

About 100 are housed at Olympic Village, part of the rest at Gruenau, Berlin's regatta course and the remaining part at K'd where the sailing events will be contested.

Australian, Argentine and Brazilian pairs and four-oar sculls, but no eight-oar sculls, are practicing hard on the Gruenau course. The eight-oar boats are expected to arrive on Friday.

Rowing practice will be in full swing by next week after the crews arrive from the Henley regatta. The Australian coach, Mr. G. R. McKenzie, declared that the Gruenau course was the best he had ever seen in his life, not only be-

DROUGHT'S TOLL IN U. S.

Cattle Killed For Unemployed

HUGE WHEAT LOSSES

Washington, July 2.
The purchase by the United States Government of up to 1,000,000 head of cattle left by the drought without nourishment on the north-western prairies, has been authorised by the Secretary for Agriculture.

The cattle will be slaughtered and packed as food for the unemployed.

Prices skyrocketed at the Chicago wheat pit after reports of the failure of the spring wheat crop in North and South Dakota, Iowa and Montana were received.

Government investigators estimate that this will cause losses of $20,000,000 and will leave 100,000 farm families without means of sustenance.

Federal officials are hastily drafting plans to provide work on relief jobs for 50,000 of the men while the rest are being taken care of by the Resettlement Association.

Rain is now falling in the south-eastern States where drought damage is estimated at $30,000,000.—Reuter.

GOOD WIN FOR GLOUCESTER

Goddard Does Well With Ball

LANCS. DEFEATED

London, July 3.
Gloucester had a good win over Lancashire in the County cricket match finished to-day.

In reply to Gloucester's first innings of 138 Lancashire could manage only 45, due to Goddard who finished with six for 15.

Gloucester clinched matters when they made 214 in the second innings. Lancashire replied with 132, Goddard again being the destroyer with five for 57.

Gloucester beat Lancashire by 175. Gloucester 138 and 214. Lancashire 45 (Goddard 6-15) and 132 (Goddard 5-57).

MORE STRIKES

cause of the fine stretches of smooth water visible all the way to every spectator, but because of the exceedingly beautiful setting of delightful wooded surroundings, wonderful boathouse accommodation, the shores enlivened with coloured homes set in beautiful gardens and the strand crowded with bathers, and the water alive with sailing craft, all of which has a stimulating effect on the crews, he added.

FEEL AT HOME

Speaking at the reception Mr. McKenzie said: “We all feel so much at home. We sometimes have difficulty in making ourselves understood, but everyone is so kind. The German people seem so much like ourselves.”

The cycle track was under repair on Thursday but was available on Friday, although practice was restricted as the rain makes the boards so slippery.

The women athletes declare themselves more pleased than ever with their quarters adjoining the Reich's Sport field. For one thing, we can settle down properly and for another we haven't so far to go to practice. All our wants are satisfied in advance,” explained one chapone.

The Berlin Post Office faces the appalling task of delivering mail during the Games, having 500,000 extra persons to serve, 100,000 of them foreigners. The task will be facilitated if the mail is addressed correctly and clearly, plainly giving the name of the addressee and the street and the house number.

Letters sent to Olympic Village will reach their destination if the nationality of the Sportsman is marked in the corner.—Transocean News Service.

COMMONS QUESTIONS ESTIMATE FOR HONG KONG BARRACKS

Variation In Figures Wider Than Is Defensible Says Report

London, July 3.

Variations in the estimates of the cost for the erection in Hong Kong of barracks to accommodate three battalions are referred to in a report by the Select Committee on Estimates.

The 1934 estimate was £1,700,000, the 1935 figure was £2,000,000, and now it is £1,100,000.

It was stated that the most recent figure was still “a rough estimate” and twice the average cost of providing accommodation for the same number of battalions in Great Britain.

The figure included £250,000 for special work.

The Committee's report states that while the earlier estimates were based on a different site, the variations in the provisional figures appeared far wider than was defensible.—Reuter.

SYRIAN PROBLEM

Paris Negotiations Prove Difficult

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Damascus, July 2.

The negotiations between the French Government and the Syrian Delegation which had been sent to Paris, are proving exceedingly difficult and will probably last another month, according to a message from Paris to the Syrian Government.

Syrian political quarters fear that several years may pass before Syria is admitted to the League of Nations. While the Syrian press and moderate circles still believe in the sincerity of the French promises with regard to Syria and Lebanon, the discontent among the extremists is again growing.

The malcontents are led by the “Young Moslems Association,” which, by excessive demands is trying to impede or frustrate the negotiations going on in Paris.

Internal difficulties, such as the frontier trade dispute between the Republics of Syria and Lebanon and the religious antagonism between the Moslems of Syria and the Christians of the Lebanon Republic are likewise threatening the success of the negotiations.—Transocean News Service.

LOST IN ARCTIC

Tragic End Of Russian Expedition

Moscow, July 3.

Twelve members of the Soviet hydrological expedition scientifically surveying the Arctic Circle, who left their base ship in a boat recently, were caught in a terrific gale and swept out to sea, according to reports just received.

Only one man of the party survived the experience, one drowning and ten dying of cold and hunger.

A second vessel belonging to the expedition, which reported the tragedy and presumably picked up the one survivor, is now itself missing.—Reuter.

WOMAN IN CAR CRASH

Slight Collision On Vehicular Ferry

TWO SEAMEN HURT

Mrs. M. Griffiths, of Prince Edward Road, Kowloon, was involved in a motor accident yesterday evening at the Vehicular Ferry wharf at Yau-mat.

Mrs. Griffiths, a learning driver, was driving a car and as the ferry was coming alongside of the Yau-mat wharf, it moved forward before the two seamen had time to lift the guarding plank which is stretched across the gateway to prevent cars from rolling over-board.

She collided with the plank and thus injured the two men carrying it.

Fong Kuen, 40, one of the seamen, was seriously injured in the legs and was taken to the Hospital. Leung Tai, 21, another seaman was not so seriously hurt.

MAN KILLED

A motor accident with fatal consequences, occurred yesterday evening about 5.20 at Kennedy Town.

A lorry was travelling along the Praya with a number of coolies in the rear when one of them, at present unknown, fell off and was severely injured.

He was picked up by the driver and taken to the Police station. Being in a critical condition, he was rushed to the Government Civil Hospital where he died about 6.30 p.m.

SANCTIONS TO BE LIFTED SAYS REPORT

Abyssinia May Be Asked To Drop Her Request For A Loan

VIEWS OF FRENCH GOVERNMENT

Geneva, July 3.

It is understood that the Committee of Coordination of the League of Nations, which decided on the application of sanctions, will recommend between July 7 and July 10, that they be abolished.

The Abyssinian request to the League for a loan and the declaration of non-recognition of Italy's annexation have been referred to the League Assembly. It is expected that efforts will be made to persuade the delegation to withdraw the request for a loan.—Reuter.

Yesterday and to-day delegates debated the reform of the League. M. Delbos, the New French Foreign Minister, declaring that the weapons of the covenant were not used with their maximum efficiency.

The Danzig question has been placed on the agenda for the Council and will come up for discussion on Saturday.

M. DELBOS
France's Delegate

COVENANT OVERHAUL IS LIKELY

On the resumption of the debate on sanctions to-day the French Foreign Minister (M. Delbos) dealt mainly with France's attitude to the League.

He said that the reason for France's setback was that the weapons of the covenant were not used with their maximum efficiency by collective action. That was not the fault of the covenant, he said, and the French delegation would not, therefore, propose any amendment of the covenant but would only strengthen its efficiency.

M. Delbos suggested that every state should express what aid it could expect from collective action.

The next Assembly vote, he suggested should be on a decisive interpretation of Article XVI, relative to sanctions.

M. Delbos characterised as absurd and a paradox the rule of unanimity. Before the Council could take action the present unanimity rule should be preserved generally but if conciliation efforts failed the Council should be able to offer every obstacle to war, he declared.—Reuter.

CHINA'S VIEW

Dr. Wellington Koo, the Chinese representative at the League Assembly session, speaking in the sanctions debate to-day, said the unhappy events of recent months were the natural sequence of the League's failure in the case of armed aggression started in September, 1931, by one member-state of the League against another.

China felt all the more keenly the loss of prestige and authority by the League, he went on. China sincerely believed in the principles on which the League was founded, and always loyally and faithfully supported it. If China now accepted the new collective decision of the Assembly, despite her profound sympathy for the other party to the conflict, she would do so in the same spirit as she had applied sanctions, provided only that such acceptance was in no way prejudicial to the fundamental principles of the Covenant.

The Chinese delegation held the opinion that the failure of the League with regard to sanctions was not due to the insufficiency or inefficiency of the measures provided by the Covenant, but rather to the policy and method of application adopted.

PARTIALLY APPLIED

Sanctions, he declared, instead of being applied in their entirety, were applied partially and haltingly, without determination and promptitude which would have produced a far greater effect.

The Chinese delegation believed that collective security was the only system that could finally ensure the maintenance of universal peace and the prevention of armed aggression. But if the members of the League wished to rely upon such a scheme, then as M. Maxim Litvinoff (of Russia) so well had said, they must defend it by all means even by resort to armed force.

Referring to the objection that the burden of the application of military measures would fall principally upon the major powers, Mr. Koo declared that it was fair that the stronger powers should contribute more since they had greater interests at stake, and so would benefit more from peace.

For the effective organisation and maintenance of peace, the principle of universality was indispensable, Mr. Koo concluded.—Reuter.

NEW ZEALAND'S VIEW

Geneva, July 2. New Zealand's High Commissioner, Sir James Parr, informed the League Assembly that his Government favoured maintenance and intensification of sanctions against Italy.—Reuter.

WAR LIKELY

London, July 2. Explaining the reasons for the raising of sanctions against Italy, Mr. Baldwin, speaking at a dinner here to-night, said that the moment had come when further pressure might lead to war, and once war was loosed in Europe no-one could know how far it would spread.

If Britain is to impose sanctions again she would do so with open eyes, and the realisation that her action would probably bring war.

"We go to Geneva in the autumn to consider the future of the League and to make another effort to assure peace by collective security. It is our strongest desire to bring together France and Germany, without whose collaboration the peace of Europe is impossible," he asserted.—Reuter.

JAPANESE POACH SOVIET WATERS

Moscow, July 3.

The seizure of four Japanese fishing vessels by Soviet subjects while fishing in northern waters is confirmed by reports from Petropavlovsk.

It is alleged that Japanese poachers have encroached "almost on to the Soviet shore" and have considerably increased.

On June 26 two Japanese schooners were found fishing at Trekhpolomy Bay, on the east coast of Kamchatka and inside the three mile limit. They were detained.

Two others were caught during the next two days, one at Surich Bay, in West Kamchatka and the other at the mouth of the Opal River.

The latter had set 200 nets which they threw into the sea

WANTS BIG LOAN

Haile Selassie's Request To League

Geneva, July 2. Emperor Haile Selassie has laid before the League Assembly two resolutions, the first requesting a League members' loan of $10,000,000 under the terms of the Covenant; the second calling for the Assembly to proclaim non-recognition of forcibly annexed country.

A covering note states that Ethiopia is taking these steps to invoke a clear manifestation of the majority of the League members.—Reuter.

COVENANT OVERHAUL

Small Nations Express Their Views

Geneva, July 2. Having previously taken the bit between their teeth and vehemently protested against the abolition of anti-Italian sanctions, the small nations to-day accepted the inevitable and turned their attention to an immediate and thorough overhaul of the League Covenant, though they are in no way unanimous with regard to the methods to be employed.

Dr. P. R. Manch, Danish Foreign Minister, preferred improvement in the operation of the League to a revision of the Covenant.

S. R. C. J. Parr, the New Zealand High Commissioner, advocated inviting all non-member states to attend the Assembly session in September.

Jhr. A. C. D. de Graeff, Holland's Foreign Minister, favoured modification of the Covenant because recent events had killed the hope of more satisfactory results if another case of aggression by a League member arose.

PRESS GALLERY SUICIDE

Shots Ring Out At League Session

HALL IN AN UPROAR

Geneva, July 3.

Stefen Lux, Czechoslovakian press photographer, shot himself in the gallery of the League Assembly Hall while it was in session to-day.

Lux is reported to be still alive. The sudden revolver reports interrupted the session and threw the delegates into an uproar, which however soon died down.

Business was resumed as soon as Lux had been removed to hospital. Reuter.

MAKE SACRIFICES

The Assembly was most impressed by Mr. Eamon de Valera's thorough-going proposal that the Great Powers get together and make sacrifices, because by a fraction of the sacrifices war would entail, the present menace could be averted.

The issue could be cleared up temporarily by the French resolution, now drafting, which reaffirms Article X, relating to the preservation of territorial integrity, and by the appointment of a commission to examine the Italo-Ethiopian dispute and to report to the Assembly in September.

DANZIG QUESTION

In the meantime an emergency meeting of the Council is contemplated to deal with the Danzig crisis, over which Mr. Sean Lester, the Irish High Commissioner, for Danzig, has been specially summoned to Geneva.

Mr. Lester is most indignant at his treatment by the Germans and it is possible that Poland may be invited to act as intermediary between him and the German Government.—Reuter.

(Hong Kong Daily Press Special)

Geneva, July 2.

As a result to the conversations between Eden, Beck and the Danzig High Commissioner, Sean Lester, which took place on Thursday morning, it was decided at a secret session of the Council held on Thursday evening to put the Danzig question on the Council's Agenda and request the Senate President, Greiser to come to Geneva. The matter will come up for discussion at the Council's session on Saturday.—Transocean News Service.

ITALIAN PRESSMEN ALL LEAVE

Solidarity With Expelled Colleagues

Geneva, July 2.

The Italian delegation, to the League Assembly announces that the remainder of the Italian journalists have left Geneva in order to mark their solidarity with those of their companions who were expelled following the demonstration in the Assembly Chamber against Emperor Haile Selassie.

They have all gone to another Canton and will go home to Italy together.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

SWISS VIEWS

(Hong Kong Daily Press Special)

Berne, July 2.

The Italian argument that the demonstration of journalists during the Negus' speech in the League Assembly, is a matter concerning merely Italy and the League of Nations but not Switzerland, is emphatically rejected by the semi-official paper "Der Bund".

The paper takes pains to point out that Switzerland enjoys full sovereign right also at Geneva and that the territory used by the League of Nations is by no means in possession of ex-territorial rights. The point of view maintained, apparently also by official Italian quarters, is, therefore, extremely curious, says the paper, stressing that although the President of the League of Nations Assembly may have authority within the confines of the League of Nations building, the Swiss sovereignty is thereby not restricted in any way. The Swiss authorities are thus fully entitled to do whatever they think fit with the private persons who have been legally arrested at the request of the President of the League Assembly, concludes the paper.—Transocean News Service.

LONGER STUDIES

Paris, July 2. The Chamber of Deputies, by a vote of 488 to 80, passed a bill ruling the school leaving age to fourteen, and in some cases to sixteen. Reuter's Bulletin Service.

AGITATORS TO SAIL FROM HONG KONG

NOT RESIGNING

Mr. Baldwin Denies Rumours

COMMONS SPEECH

London, July 3. Rumours that the Prime Minister, Mr. Baldwin, was ill and contemplated early retirement were emphatically denied by him in a speech last night.

The Premier, after a long spell of work had felt rather tired and had not been sleeping well, so he had remained in the country at Chequers for three days—such an unusual course for him as perhaps to explain rumours.

In fact he mentioned it was first time he had done so while Parliament was sitting during the 18 years he has held Government office.

He was given particularly a cordial welcome from all parties when he entered the House of Commons during the afternoon and a Labour member, in putting a question to him regarding the Government's knowledge of the extent to which German air armaments had attained, said the Opposition were glad to see him back in his place.

Answering this particular question the Prime Minister said "It is always more difficult to obtain accurate information about a country in which no estimates on defence are published. Government however is satisfied that information at present in our possession derived from a variety of sources represents the actual state of affairs as far as they can be accurately obtained."—British Wireless.

SOVIET CRITICISM

Of The Dardanelles Agreement

(Hong Kong Daily Press Special) Moscow, July 2.

The paper "Isvestia" severely criticises the draft agreement submitted by Turkey relating to the Dardanelles Straits. The paper describes the Document as "anything but friendly towards the Soviet Union, whose frontiers not only border the Black Sea, but also extend to the Baltic Sea, the Pacific Ocean and the Arctic." The paper declares that according to recent press reports a contract for the construction of Dardanelles fortifications has already been given to one of the "Imperialistic Powers" and expresses anxiety at the increased influence of the power in question, Turkey, as evidenced by the fortification contracts.—Transocean News Service.

LORD STANLEY CHIEF

London, July 2. Lord Stanley, it is learned, is proceeding to Switzerland to replace Lord Stanhope as leader of the British delegation at the Montreux conference, concerning Turkey's remilitarisation of the Dardanelles.

The conference will probably be returned on July 6. It is understood Lord Stanhope returns to assume his duties as First Commissioner of Works.—Reuter.

PASSAGES ON PRESIDENT JEFFERSON

Startling Report
From Shanghai

SHIPPING WARNED

Shanghai, July 3.

Chinese authorities in Shanghai, announce the receipt of a report from a reliable source that 300 alleged agitators have booked passages from Hong Kong for Shanghai on the President Jefferson.

The President Jefferson is due to leave Hong Kong on July 8. Steps are being taken to prevent the alleged agitators from landing and the co-operation of the Consul General for the United States has been sought, as the President Jefferson belongs to an American concern.

A Chinese official called on the Dollar Steamship Company to-day and requested the cancellation of the passages already booked.

The matter is being brought to the attention of other shipping companies.—Reuter.

SOUTH-WEST INVITED

Nanking, July 2.

General Chan Chai-long, General Li Tsung-jen and General Pei Chung-hsi have been sent personal invitations to attend the second plenary session of the Kuomintang chiefs at Nanking.

All members receive invitations as a matter of routine if not for other reasons.

It is officially confirmed that Kwangsi is sending three delegates to Nanking to attend the C.E.C. session, including Gen. Chang Yim-ming, Chief of Staff of the Kwangsi Army, Li Yin-jen and Mue Wen-chang.

It is expected that the delegation will sail in the next few days.—Reuter.

ATTACK ON WATER RESERVOIR

Arabs Are Repulsed By Watchmen

Jerusalem, July 3.

Arab snipers to-day attacked the water reservoir on the outskirts of Jerusalem, but were repulsed by watchmen who dispersed the attackers after firing a number of shots.

It is understood that one Arab was fatally shot.

The town of Hebron where a British officer, and a private were wounded yesterday by an Arab ambush has been fined $2,000.—Reuter.

MORE AMBUSHES

Jerusalem, July 2.

Ambushes of police and military patrols by Arab marksmen are still the order of the day in Palestine.

A British officer, and private were slightly wounded when their patrol was fired on by snipers on the outskirts of Jerusalem to-day.

A new step has been taken by the Arabs to embarrass the Government. They have started a hunger strike in the concentration camp.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

Algeria, July 2. Rioting involving Arabs, Jews and Europeans is occurring almost daily, and to-day 1,000 Arabs, carrying a red flag, attempted to take a small town near Algiers.

Police and soldiers were rushed to the scene and after a few hours dispersed the demonstrators, who bombarded the police and troops with paving stones brought by lorry.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

MURDERER'S END

Colonel Aizawa Faces Firing Squad

Tokyo, July 3.

Colonel Aizawa faced a firing squad to-day and was executed for the murder of General Nagata on August 12, 1935.

Found guilty of the murder in December, Aizawa spent months in appealing to higher tribunals. His last appeal to the Supreme Court-Martial was dismissed on Wednesday.—Reuter.

TWO SOLDIERS ACQUITTED

Concerned In Death
Of Japanese

ONE FOR ASSAULT

Peking, July 3.

Herbert Cooke and Ralph Hunt, the British soldiers charged with implication in the death of Kikaku Sasaki, Japanese officer in the Manchukuo Defence Department, were to-day discharged by the British Consular Court.

Delivering reserved judgment to-day the Magistrate, Mr. N. Fitzmaurice, said there was insufficient evidence against either.

He held, however, that there was a "prima facie" case against Cooke in the case of assaulting Onishi, another Japanese who was with Sasaki when he met his death.

Deciding to deal with the charge summarily, the Magistrate formally charged Cooke with assault and causing bodily harm.

Cooke pleaded not guilty and his counsel, Mr. P. H. B. Kent, opened his defence.—Reuter.

ALIBI CLAIMED

Mr. Kent said the defence would rely on an alibi.

He admitted that Cooke had visited the establishment but would prove that he left before the time the alleged assault took place.

Moreover, he said, Onishi, who formed the bulk of the prosecution's evidence, had linked Cooke, and Hunt together but actually Hunt had not left the barracks that night.

Cooke's counsel said that Cooke was a military policeman in company with a soldier named Heal, he said.

Mr. Kent added that he did not doubt that "certain witnesses intended to accuse particular men of a particular assault."—Reuter.

JAPANESE STATEMENT

Peking, July 3.

A Japanese Embassy spokesman is a statement this afternoon said that although the British Court had decided not to proceed against Hunt and Cooke in connection with the death of Sasaki because there was insufficient evidence, there was no doubt that Sasaki's death had been caused by certain British soldiers. The Embassy had asked for instructions from Tokyo, he said.—Reuter.

INCIDENT SETTLED

Peiping, July 3.

The Fengtai incident, which arose over the detention of a Japanese army officer and the manhandling of a trader by Chinese troops, has been finally settled at a Sino-Japanese conference.

Besides replacing the Chinese troops at Fengtai, the Chinese authorities have agreed, among other things, to formally apologise for the offences against Japanese subjects, to deprive the battalion commander responsible of his rank, and to pay damages to the Japanese trader allegedly manhandled and detained.—Reuter.

PRESENTS CREDENTIALS

Nanking, July 3.

Mr. Kawagoe, Japanese Ambassador to China, presented his credentials to Mr. Lin Sen this morning.

Those present included Mr. Chang Chun, the Foreign Minister, and officials of the Government.—Reuter.

NO FIRE ALARM

Optical Illusion At Budapest

(Hong Kong Daily Press Special)

Budapest, July 3. An exceedingly curious natural phenomenon gave rise on Thursday evening to a false alarm that the Hungarian House of Parliament was in flames.

The policeman on duty outside building, noticed about sunset, that the vast cupola was luridly coloured red, which was due to the reflected light, the outlines of the dome aquiver, owing, as was subsequently found out, to the ascending hot air currents, and the roof apparently enveloped in flames, which was due to clouds of myriads of insects.

When the fire brigade arrived the optical illusion was discovered. Transocean News Service.

RECREIO OUT FOR REVENGE Champions Must Improve To Win

LAST WEEK'S BOWLS REVIEWED

(BY "SHORT HEAD")

The Craigenower Cricket Club, the senior Lawn Bowls League Champions continued in their winning vein last week when they beat the K.C.C. by ten shots, and their return game with the Club de Recreio to-day will be watched by the Bowling Green with anxiety, as a defeat of the Champions by the Recreio means a step nearer to the ladder for the Bowling Green.

Last week's results were very much as expected. The Indians after their good showing of a week ago went down heavily to the Bowling Green, while the match between the two "Dock" teams ended in a victory for the Talkoo by a single shot.

INDIANS' POOR FORM

The Indians were very poorly served by A. R. Minu's rink, losing to A. M. Holland's four by the big margin of 34 shots to 6. The losers scored on only four heads, and the bowling of Minu was deplorably weak, his only asset was his driving, which, against an experienced player like Holland did not stand him in good stead.

Dallah's rink likewise lost to R. Duncan's four by 18 shots to 12, and although the winners were playing the better brand of bowls the Indians came into their own now and again.

M. Y. Adal and his men gave L. Guy's quartette a good run for the game, losing eventually by 23 shots to 19. In this match, D. M. Khan played splendidly as No. 1 and gave his skip good support. The winners were well served in every department.

NEARLY, BUT NOT QUITE

Craigenower "B" came very near to beating their neighbour the Police, but a last minute recovery by the Guardians of the Law enabled them to obtain the two points after an exceedingly close fought out game.

Leading by seven shots Gill had the misfortune to see his rink going down to Mair's four by two shots. Thanks primarily to Mair who was more than responsible in dislodging the losers' shots, the winners were able to creep up slowly on the losers and eventually ran out victors by the two shots.

Poorly supported, but nevertheless he played a real skip's game was the verdict returned by many when they saw the display of W. V. Field when his side went down to "Bill" Hollands' four by 19 shots to 13. On eight successive heads Field was blanked and then whenever luck was needed it went the way of Hollands.

Skipping for the first time in the senior division, Stewart Logan scored a meritorious victory over W. K. Way's four by three shots. He was trailing behind most of the heads and towards the close staged a remarkable recovery to snatch victory out of the jaws of defeat.

THE "DOCK DERBY"

The present wooden spoonist's position in the senior league was decided when Talkoo just managed to beat the Kowloon Docks by a single shot. The game was very evenly contested, in fact so closely was it contested that of the three rinks played, two ended in draws. The result depended on the match between Chalmers' four and J. V. Ramsay's quartette. Right up to the last head it was anybody's game, and the spin of the coin went in favour of the Talkoo skip who was able to pull his weight and scored that extra shot to give his side that much needed two points.

Club de Recreio were given a very rude shock when they visited the Civil Service. The game was another closely fought out affair, and the skill of H. A. Alves won the day for the Portuguese.

The Civil Servants were decidedly unlucky not to have won. They were up two of the three rinks. J. Hollidge and his men accounting for C. G. Silva's four by a single shot, and MacGowan's rink was up by 12 shots against F. X. M. da Silva's. The result depended on the match between Jones' rink and H. A. Alves' four. The wizardry of Alves won the day and his 16 shots' victory gave the Portuguese boys the two points.

NOT AN EASY TASK

The Craigenower Cricket Club "A" team had no easy task against the K.C.C. at Happy Valley. They were led right up to the last three heads by two shots. Omar and Luz were responsible for their victory, they pulled up wonderfully during the last three heads. Omar's rink played very well to beat Luz's rink. At one time Omar was down by several shots and it looked as if Luz was in for a big win. Rummah and Omar however, were playing too well, especially on the last few heads which ultimately gave their side victory.

A. T. Lay played his first game of League bowls and performed quite well. Goodwin and Hyde Lay were the pick of the K.C.C.'s rinks. Bebbington's rink, with the exception of Mulcahy, played very badly and were well beaten by Luz's rink. Luz was off but there was very little for him to do as his other three men, especially Rosset, were playing well. Fincher's rink had a good win against Bassa by 6 shots, the margin might have been greater if Ferguson had played average bowls. Cavanagh and Atienza had an off day and gave Bassa no support whatsoever.

TO-DAY'S PROSPECTS

The tit-bit of to-day's programme is the clash between the C.C.C. "A" and the Club de Recreio. In the first round the Champions won as expected, and with the present bad form shown by the Valley team anything is liable to happen.

The Portuguese are not playing as well as ever either. Both the Silva's are not in form and everything will depend on H. A. Alves. The game should be a very close one, and the result will slightly favour the away team.

The Bowling Green will, I am sure, find strong opposition in the Civil Service when they meet to-day. Of late, the Civil Servants have improved tremendously and their chances of causing an upset are very rosy. Both Hollidge and MacGowan are very much improved skips and although the Bowling Green may win they will have to go all out for the points.

The K.C.C. should be able to gather another two points at the expense of the Police. Fraser once again returns to his fold, and with Bebbington and A. Hyde Lay playing their usual sound game they should be able to win.

On the other hand the Police are also on the improved side. Stewart Logan's introduction to the senior team is indeed an acquisition. With Hollands and Mair in form a good game should be seen.

Talkoo stands a good chance of collecting another two points if they can maintain their last week's standard of bowls. They are playing the C.C.C. "B" to-day and although on paper the Valley team is favoured to win, I fancy the result will be the other way round. The C.C.C. "B" are not playing the same brand of bowls as they did earlier in the season. They have fallen off a great deal, and with Talkoo playing inspired bows, this game ought to be an even affair.

The Indians are playing away against the Kowloon Docks. On form and on paper they ought to win.

LEANDER AND ZURICH MEET IN FINAL

London, July 3.

Leander, last year's runners-up, and Zurich, the Swiss crew, will contest the final of the Grand Challenge Cup, the tit-bit of the Henley Regatta programme.

In the semi-finals rowed to-day Leander beat Boston and Zurich accounted for the strong Japanese Olympic team.

The weather was ideal to-day, although there was no sun. A slight head wind blew over the water.

Zurich paddle home amid great applause to beat Tokyo by six lengths. From an excellent start the Japanese went to the lead with a faster stroke but Zurich had a lead of three-quarters of a length after the first 200 yards.

At the quarter mile the Japanese were stroking 40 but had not made up their leeway.

Zurich passed Fawley in 3.24, rowing beautifully two lengths ahead. At the three-quarter mile the Japanese made frantic efforts but they became ragged as they picked up their rate to 48. Zurich paddled home easy winners.

The time, 7.9, was a long way behind the 8.25 recorded in the final between Pembroke (Cambridge) and Leander last year.

GRAND CHALLENGE CUP

Semi-Finals
Zurich (Switzerland) beat Tokyo by six lengths. Time 7.9.
Leander (England) beat Boston (America) by a length. Time 7.17.

PERRY WINS HIS THIRD TITLE

Smashing Defeat Of Von Cramm

IN STRAIGHT SETS

London, July 3.

For the third year in succession, Fred J. Perry, the English tennis player, has won the final of the men's singles at Wimbledon.

In the easiest possible manner he defeated the German champion, Baron G. von Cramm, in straight sets, losing only two games throughout the entire match.

Final scores were 6-1, 6-1, 6-0.

Perry is thus the only player who has won the Wimbledon title three years in succession since the war.

Diocesan Boys Prize Day

I have listened with rapid attention to the head school report by the acting headmaster, the Rev. Mr. Nash. The brilliant results that have been obtained both in the field of sports and in the competitive public examinations are indeed a source of gratification to all of us, and I should like to congratulate the acting headmaster and the staff, who must be the "fons et origo" of all these successes. Mr. Sargent, the headmaster who is now on leave, has chosen the right man to act for him, and the school is indeed fortunate in having as acting headmaster, one who is no less keen and capable in producing the excellent results which we have just heard.

REDUCED FEES

The report touches on many interesting points, on some of which I should like to make a few comments.

The acting headmaster announces that the school fees for classes 5, 6, 7 and 8 have been reduced. To parents who are financially harassed, this announcement must come as good news, but they should try also to appreciate and respond to the purpose of this thoughtful gesture on the part of the school authorities. In thus reducing the school fees for the lower classes, it is the intention of these authorities to induce the boys to enter the school young, and to start, as it were, from the bottom of the school ladder, and to climb, rung by rung, class by class, until they have completed the 8 year course afforded by this school.

Some parents are very fond of taking their boys from school to school hoping with each change to get quicker promotions for their boys. This practice is to be deprecated, for it is neither fair to the boys themselves nor to the schools that have to train them. It is only when boys have stayed a sufficiently long time in a school that they can be said to have imbued the spirit and ideals of the school. It is not enough that a school merely imparts book knowledge—for true education teaches a man how to live, how to make use of his leisure and opportunities, and lastly, how to die.

SCHOOL QUALITIES

There are qualities in a school which cannot be calculated in a prosaic way. The inspiring contact with men and institutions, the influence of the indefinable traditions of the school are factors not to be lightly dismissed or discounted, for they go far towards moulding a boy's life. Many successful men to-day will admit that they owe their success, whether in commerce, science or art, to the inspiring personalities of their teachers or schools. Through them, their natural gifts and inclinations were tended and nourished and developed. For the essence of education is not mass production of stereotyped boys, but to bring out and develop in each boy his special gifts, aptitude and inclination. Happy is the boy whose natural gifts are thus developed, and happy is the school that can develop them, and happy is the community that has such a school, which will obviate the production of so many tragic misfits in society. It is this thought that makes one feel how great is the responsibility of school masters and of the parents and/or guardians who have to choose the right type of schools for their boys. But if schools have ideals to aim at and duty to perform, so have the community or general public.

It has been said that a country has the Government which it deserves; a true variation of this statement would be that a community has the schools that it deserves. If the public would wish to have good schools, they must be prepared to support them, and so, in commenting on the school report I join with the acting headmaster in urging the public not to take the boys from school to school, nor, from a false sense of economy, begrudge the slightly increased costs that may be involved in their education.

LOSS ON FEES

The report also mentions the fact that annually there is a loss of about $10,000 in school fees. Part of this loss is due to the reduction in fees, and part due to the desire of the school to give some poor boys a chance of education, who would otherwise never have that chance. It is a serious financial loss to the school, and while, as the acting headmaster has pointed out, it is a church school which is animated by higher ideals than financial considerations, still, no school or organization, however, well intentioned, can afford to lose such a big sum annually. If we do not wish to cramp the school in its development, or to lose in efficiency, we must give it the necessary financial support, and so I appeal to all old boys, to the parents and guardians of the present boys, and to all true friends of the Diocesan Boys' School to come forward and help the school.

In spite of the adverse condition of the finances, the school authorities are ever watchful for improvements, and seeing that the teaching of Chinese has been a weak point not only in this, but in other schools of the Colony, the authorities have engaged an efficient staff for that purpose. This remedies a long felt want, for it has been said that to love one's country, one must know the country well—to know its heritage, its history, its achievements, its hopes and its ideals. In this way it will be found that China will contribute her portion to the enrichment of world civilisation. There will be no necessity now for Hong Kong boys to go elsewhere for their education in Chinese.

HIS OPTIMISM

As an old boy I have listened with admiration to the achievements of the school in the year under review, and it is with optimism and pardonable pride that I look forward to the school's future. As a member of the school committee and President of the Old Boys' Association I feel that the success of the school must depend on the unremitting efforts of those of us who are behind the lines, as it were, and so it may not be out of place for me here to appeal to all old boys and colleagues of the school committee to press forward with greater diligence in helping the school to fulfil its destiny and to take its place in serving the community.

I note that the school is a cosmopolitan one, and its old boys go to all parts of China, to Australia and as far as South Africa and America, and I feel sure, wherever they go they will carry the traditions of the Diocesan Boys' School with them. I dislike to lecture to anybody, but it is the usual privilege expected of the speaker on this platform to say a few words to the present boys, and so I may be pardoned for making just one appeal to the present boys to uphold the traditions of the school, and if possible to add to the lustre of that name. On your achievements will be built the future traditions of the Diocesan Boys' School, and I know you will not fail.

PRIZES PRESENTED

Lady Caldecott then presented the prizes and sports trophies.

RECRUITS FOR THE I.C.S.

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, June 17. I hear that the European entries for this year's Indian Civil Service examination are 50 per cent greater than at any time since the end of the war, writes a correspondent and the number of applications for entry by selection has more than doubled as the result of a recent speech by Lord Willingdon, in which he pointed out the splendid opportunities which the Service offers to University men of the right type and training. There will thus be some hundreds of candidates this year, following a period of serious under-recruitment of Europeans, and there seems every prospect under the new scheme of getting the very best class of men for India. Incidentally, the increased entries afford a complete answer to the argument sedulously propagated in certain quarters that the decline in recruitment was attributable to the Indian reform policy.

Now is the time to visit
Australia & New Zealand

lands of Sunshine and Romance. "Down Under" you will feel a new being and even if you are not inclined towards Surfing, Fishing, Shooting or Mountaineering you will find that the Antipodes have plenty to offer you, including 250,000 for your pound.

On the way down your life aboard will be as you wish, quiet or hectic for the E. & A. will humour you every whim.

And by the way, there is no additional charge for Deck Cabins and there is of course a Sun Deck swimming pool, an Orchestra and a fine Laundry.

A Surgeon and Stewardess are at your disposal and last but not least—we had almost forgotten—the cuisine will set you listening eagerly for the Gong.
